The Beginning of Rome – Critical Thinking Questions

Answer the following questions based on the two accounts you read. Please use COMPLETE sentences!

1. Why do you think the myth of Romulus & Remus founding Rome (Account A) was taught to young Roman children to explain how their civilization started? Why might this myth be important to pass down in Ancient Roman culture?

2. What is a popular myth in our culture today? Explain the story/details of the myth and why we use it in our society.

3. In Account B, the historical account tells us about 3 different groups that contributed to the foundation of Rome. Who were these 3 groups? How did these groups each influence the founding (creation) of Rome?
